

FERGUS RUG LIGNE ROSET

IN-STORE PURCHASE ONLY

Design by Constance Frapolli Fergus references the name Fergusson, which can be found in many areas of Scotland. The Ferguson clan helped popularise tartan. Tartan is a woollen with a colourful squared motif typical amongst Celtic peoples. It is formed from a pattern of criss-crossed horizontal and vertical lines in a range of colours. Tartans were originally seen only on fabric, but are now used on many other materials. Scottish kilts are thus almost always made in a tartan-patterned fabric. Hand tufted rug in 100 % wool (tufted in certain areas / sculpted in others). The fringes are simply a continuation of the motif. There are no equivalent shades amongst the pompom rings. Available in 'Khaki' or 'Mastic'.

Dimensions

The length of the fringes is 8 cm, giving overall dimensions of 216 cm x 316 cm.
